

INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

Time Allowed – 1.5 hours

Please answer TWO questions

1. In the 21st century international politics will be more important than domestic politics. Discuss.
2. When the United Kingdom leaves the European Union, should it spend more on its military?
3. Why do richer countries believe that investing in global development is a good idea? Do you agree?
4. How far is global politics driven by global economics?
5. Is it ever right to go to war with another country?
6. Does the spread of nuclear weapons make the world safer or more dangerous?
7. Should the EU welcome, or refuse entry to, refugees fleeing from conflict in their home countries?
8. What are the most important factors shaping the security relationship between Russia and the United States?
9. What effect has globalization had on women?
10. What impact will climate change have on international politics?